BUY THE BRAINS BEHIND THE CORN

It Cost One Farmer $500, but He Won Out.

THEY DETERMINE THE VALUES

Raw Material is Cheap, but the Amount of Brains Mixed With It in Manufacture Means Profit or Loss. Learn How.

Some years ago a Hoosier farmer began to breed fine seed corn. At one of the great national corn shows, held at Chicago, he took the first prize for a single ear of corn. The rule governing this exhibit was that the ear taking first prize became the property of the corn show. The farmer was in despair until he learned that this "best ear in the world" would be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. He determined he must keep this ear of corn for seed on his own farm at any cost. HE BOUGHT THE EAR FOR $500.

Every one said he was crazy to pay such a price for a single ear of corn. Of course any other ear of the same weight and costing about 1/16 cent would have fed as much stock or made as many cornmeal butter cakes for breakfast. Why was he willing to pay such a huge price for the corn? He was not buying corn at all. HE WAS BUYING THE BRAINS BEHIND ITS PRODUCTION.

Raw material is cheap; the amount of brains mixed with it in its manufacture fixes its market value. A piece of window glass is cheap; a watch crystal is more expensive; a lens for a fine camera is quite expensive; the objective for a great telescope may cost a small fortune. What is true of corn or any raw material is true of men. A fine, strong, vigorous man can be bought for $2 as a laborer. Mix brains enough for him to handle a section gang, and he will bring $3 per day. Mix brains enough to fit him for a conductor, and he will bring $4 to $5 per day on the market. Enough brains to handle a great railroad system, and he brings $100 per day on the open market.

All values in the market of the world are educated brain values. The cheapest education is the best. For the efficient, well educated man is the high priced commodity.

Painting and Grapefruit.
"You say that teacher wants you to get some paint and a paint brush, Bobby?" exclaimed a farmer.

"Yes, sir, to paint pictures with," answered his eight-year-old hopeful.

"Do you know when I went to school I had lots of old blue spellers and hickory leaf and no frills or fur belows. I reckon I'll have to get 'em for you, but it looks like a plumb waste of time, this paintin' of pictures."

His good wife smiled behind her glasses and kept on sewing. Some time later, when Bobby was fast asleep, she adroitly asked the man enveloped in the blue haze of White Sulphur, "Rob, what did you get when you were in town this afternoon?"

"Why, I got those repairs for the shredder that had come by express, and I saw some nice grapefruit an' oranges an' brought a few along. Why?"

"What was the use of bringin' them home? You knew we had plenty of bacon, potatoes, beans an' coffee in the pantry, didn't you?"

Gradually the man struggled out of the smoke long enough to exclaim: "One reason I got 'em was to please you. Great Scott, don't you ever get worked out, tired to death of fat meat an' coffee, woman?"

"Of course I do, an' I like grapefruit an' all kinds of odds an' ends to give me an appetite for the plain, substantial things. But," and a pleasant, mischievous smile spread over her soft, motherly face, "you an' I were raised on fat meat, coffee an' lots of hickory leaf, weren't we, Rob?"

For a moment the man's face wore a puzzled look. Suddenly his face cleared, and he laughed heartily and said: "I reckon I was kinder hard on Bobby just now. You are right—things are different now, an' they're a lot better than they used to be. I see what you are drivin' at, mother. Yes, the teacher wants to use the paintin' like a kinder relish or side dish to keep up their appetite for the rest of the everyday school grub."

The natural resources of any country are limited. The only resource that is without a limit is human brains.

A Splendid Tonic

Cora, Ky.—Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place, says: "I was so weak, I could hardly walk. I tried Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to my friends, who tried it with good results." Testimony like this comes unsolicited, from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by timely use of that successful tonic medicine, Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui well merits its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains, and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. Your druggist sells Cardui.

DAINTIES FOR SUPPER

LIGHT AND AT THE SAME TIME SUFFICIENTLY NUTRITIVE.

Rice With Oranges Will Be Appreciated, or Rice With Fried Bananas and Poached Eggs—To Prepare Spanish Beans.

Rice and Oranges.—Have a dish of hot plain boiled rice. Slice some oranges. Put a tablespoon of rice on a plate, garnish with a few slices of orange and pour over sauce made in the following manner: Melt one cup of honey over a slow flame and add one tablespoon of brandy, maraschino or even a little grape juice if it is for children.

Lightning Cake.—Break two eggs in a large measuring cup, add three tablespoons of melted butter and fill up the cup with milk. Sift one and one-half cups of flour, one scant cup of sugar, a pinch of salt and two heaping teaspoons of baking powder. Pour liquids into dry ingredients, beat well and bake in a moderately hot oven until done. Test with a broom straw. This cake recipe can be used as a layer cake, as a loaf cake or baked in small tins. A measuring cup holds two medium sized cupfuls.

Rice, Fried Bananas and Poached Eggs.—One cup of well washed rice and three cups of milk or water. Cook for one hour in a double boiler with half a teaspoon of salt. Fry five bananas and some slices of bacon (I usually fry two slices apiece). Poach five eggs in milk or water. Arrange rice on platter, carefully lift eggs and lay on rice and then put bacon and bananas around the eggs. This is a delicious and appetizing dish. I usually serve a crisp salad afterward.

Apple Salad.—Slice firm tart apples (Newtown pippins are fine); slice some oranges. Pour over some salad dressing and toss lightly on a plate of crisp lettuce.

Dressing.—Two tablespoons of vinegar, add one teaspoon of salt and two teaspoons of sugar and one teaspoon of burnt onion juice; then pour into this slowly one cup of olive oil. This is a fine dressing for any fruit or vegetable salad.

Spanish Beans.—Soak two cups of Spanish beans (the large pink ones) over night. In the morning drain the water off thoroughly. Chop fine two large onions and fry in a pan until brown; add beans and cook about ten minutes, watching carefully. Pour over these one can of tomatoes and a heaping teaspoon of salt; add two bell peppers if desired. Cook slowly until tender, adding water as needed. Requires about three hours' cooking. At serving time put in a baking dish, cover well with grated cheese and brown in hot oven. A piece of salt pork may be added if desired, and I usually serve brown bread also. This dish of beans is good topped off with a lettuce salad or a cold boiled artichoke with mayonnaise dressing.

Beef and Lamb Croquettes.

One cup cold meat, three-quarters cup boiled potato, one small onion, two sprays of parsley; put all through chopper; then melt two tablespoons butter and mix well with it two tablespoons flour; add when well blended one cup of milk, a little at a time, until sauce is good and thick; add to sauce other ingredients, salt and pepper to taste, and a pinch of sage or poultry dressing. Mix all together and set aside to cool. Shape into small cones or balls; be sure not to have them too large. Then roll in bread crumbs; then into the white of an egg, which should have one tablespoon of water beaten into it slightly; then into crumbs again, and then set aside until meal time. Fry in deep fat until well browned, turning over all the time. Try fat with small piece of bread and if it will brown while you count 45 it is ready. Cook four croquettes at a time.

Tomato Omelet.

Peel two large tomatoes and cut in pieces. Cook slowly with one-third level teaspoonful of salt and a few grains of red pepper. Beat separately the yolks and whites of three eggs; mix and season with a pinch of salt and a very little pepper. Melt a rounding teaspoonful of butter in a pan, turn in the eggs, and as they begin to set lay the tomato around the top. Finish cooking, turn and serve with a parsley garnish.

Grease Spots.

For very bad grease spots on the front of a cotton dress sprinkle plentifully with finely prepared starch and cover it with brown paper. Iron it with a hot iron for a few minutes, then wash it in the usual way in warm soapuds; no trace of the grease remains.

Barberry and Sweet Apple.

Take one gallon of molasses, four quarts barberries and a large pan of sweet apples, sliced. Put on to boil and cook in a large crock and cover. If it is cooked right it will not ferment.

Eggplant Patties.

Mold the eggplant pulp to make patties or croquettes. If necessary roll them in flour to hold them in shape. Dip them in egg, then in flour, then again in egg and finally in fine bread crumbs. Fry in hot oil or fat.

Ox Tongue, German Way.

Parboil the tongue, take off the outer skin, roast till tender, basting it continually; dish with brown sauce and serve current jelly with it.
